Columbia Commandery, K. T., to Hold Reunion.

Seaton W. Trunnell, Eminent Commander of Columbia Commandery, No. 2, Knights Templar, announces that that body will resume labor Friday evening, September 18, at 7:30, and that plans are being made for a reunion of the Sir Knights at this, the first convocation of the fall months. The commander has addressed a personal letter to each member, urging him to be present. There will be no degree work. Following the regular business, and a recess for handshaking and social mingling, refreshments and cigars will be served in the banquet hall of the temple, at the conclusion of which an entertainment, consisting of vocal and instrumental music and short talks by leading members of the order, will be given. All Sir Knights in the jurisdiction are cordially invited to meet with Columbia Commandery on this occasion.

Grand Lodge to Hold Special for Corner Stone Laying.

Grand Secretary Arvine W. Johnston, of the Grand Lodge, F. & A. M., District of Columbia, has sent out the following notice to the fraternity: "The grand master has accepted an invitation from Brother, the Rev. Luther Hess, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Georgetown, to lay the corner stone of a new place of worship to be erected by the church at the corner of Wisconsin avenue and Volta place northwest."

"A special communication of the Grand Lodge for this purpose will therefore be held in Georgetown Masonic Hall, 1210 Wisconsin avenue northwest, on Wednesday, September 16, 1914, at 3:45 o'clock p. m. The Grand Lodge will march to the site of the corner stone, escorted by George C. Whiting, Lodge, No. 22, and Potomac Commandery, No. 3, K. T., and the exercises will begin at 4:30 o'clock."

"All members of the fraternity are cordially invited to be present. Dark clothing and hats, lodgeskin aprons and white gloves will be worn as required by the regulations of the Grand Lodge."

Committee Appointed for Lebanon "Ladies Night."

Lebanon Lodge, No. 7, F. & A. M., will hold the M. M. degree at its next meeting, September 15. The degree will be conferred by the officers of the lodge. The fellowcraft team will be in attendance as usual. All master masons are cordially invited to be present. The work was executed in a proficient and excellent manner. James R. Hall sang a beautiful solo, accompanied by Miss Ruth Berryman at the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoover favored the chapter with a comic sketch, which was enjoyed by all present. The worthy matron announced that at the next meeting, September 22, the masters and patrons of 1914 will attend the chapter in a body. After the meeting all participated in a watermelon feast, served by the refreshment committee. The chapter's fancy drill team is in fine shape and eager for the coming fall and winter's entertainments.

Chairman S. M. Pearson, of the Grand Lodge committee on Publicity, has called a meeting of that committee for next Friday evening at Grand Lodge headquarters, at which time a matter of great importance to the membership of this domain will be discussed. It is especially urged that every member of that committee be present to meet with the grand chancellor on that occasion.

Enters Race for Supreme Representative.

Past Grand Chancellor Mark Stearnman, junior past grand chancellor of this domain, who so ably filled the office of grand chancellor, then unexpectedly called to that position last year by the death of Grand Chancellor Robert Sroufe, has announced himself as a candidate for election as supreme representative at the next convention of the Grand Lodge, to succeed Supreme Representative T. A. Bynum, whose term expires December 31, 1915.

Coldwell Company to Hold Drills.

Capt. I. A. Emmons, of Coldwell Company, No. 7, has announced that beginning September 24, that company will drill twice a month until further notice.

Maj. R. T. Whiting and Lieut. J. E. Wilson were visitors at the meeting of J. T. Coldwell Commandery, No. 7, last Thursday evening.

Big Reception to Be Given Washington Company.

What is expected to be the opening of enthusiasm in the fall campaign in Pythian will be the informal reception tendered the drill team of Washington Commandery, No. 1, military department, members of the unit at the biennial encampment of the department at Terre Haute, Ind., last July, by the Grand Lodge and J. T. Coldwell Commandery, No. 7, at Pythian Temple next Thursday evening. Address vocal solos, and other pleasing features, followed by refreshments and dancing, will constitute the evening's pleasure. The address of the evening will be delivered by William G. Brown, member of Congress from West Virginia and grand inner guard of the grand lodge of that domain.

A cordial and earnest invitation is extended to all Pythians, their families, and friends to be present at this affair.

Events of Washington Eagles.

Entertainment Committee to Hold Important Meetings.

The entertainment committee met Tuesday evening to make preparation for the clam and crab feast to be held Friday evening, September 25. There will be another meeting of this committee September 14, and the final meeting will be on September 21. Chairman Luther B. Interior Council met in its council chamber at Pythian Temple Wednesday evening. General Deputy Bugden was present and addressed the meeting relative to the Bruen Home, stating that it was one of the most charitable institutions of Washington, having no appropriation from Congress, and that the National Union of this jurisdiction is to give a theater night for the Bruen Home at Polk's Theater, the third Monday in November, and asking that the council bear it in mind and make it a thorough success.

D. A. Helpman, superintendent of the field department, will be in Washington Wednesday to present to Congressional Council the gold prize won by getting the largest number of members in a given time. It is expected that a large attendance will be at the meeting that night, as it is one of the great events that seldom happens to a council.

E. F. Gibbons and J. Olsen, of Potomac Council, and Elmer Johnson, of Congressional Council, have just returned from Atlantic City, having had a delightful trip.

Royal Arcanum.

The supreme regent of the Royal Arcanum, Frank E. Wickersham, of Harrisonburg, Pa., was in Washington last week for a conference with local officers on the work of the order in Washington. The meeting was held at the Willard Hotel, and among those present were M. Barlow Mercer, the local grand regent, Claude R. Zappone, supreme scribe; Frank S. Parker, grand orator; E. A. Niess, grand vice regent; Guy F. Allen, of the grand council; Benjamin White, grand secretary; S. H. Talke, R. Newton Donaldson, A. B. Keeler, and others.

After the conference Mr. Wickersham went to Richmond, accompanied by Mr. Mercer, where a conference of grand regents of Eastern States was held. The state of the order in the States represented was thoroughly discussed and plans made for extension of the work.

Mr. Mercer returned to the city enthusiastic about the growth of the order and the prospects in Washington during the coming winter.

Oriental Council is now engaged in a campaign which the council officers promise will terminate in a class of candidates numbering one hundred, to be initiated October 27.

Officers of Gury Council have started to work on the organization of a Royal Arcanum Duck Pin League, and several of the local councils have signified their intention to enter teams. This movement has the endorsement of Grand Regent Mercer, who has personally advocated it in several councils.

Amity Lodge Busy with Degrees.

Amity Lodge, No. 27, is having degree work every season. Last Tuesday evening the lodge conferred the initiatory degree, and next Tuesday evening the first degree will be conferred. The noble grand, Past Grand Master Richard H. Sorrell, states that he will be glad to receive members from other lodges.

Date Announced for Rebekah Celebration.

The representatives to the joint committee on Rebekah anniversary met with Past Grand Master Thomas J. Gates in the blue room, I. O. O. F. Hall, Wednesday evening. There was a full attendance of the lodge representatives, and the subcommittee members were appointed, and October 14 set as the time for holding the exercises in the auditorium of Odd Fellows' Hall, Seventh street northwest.

Eastern Lodge Receives Visitors.

Eastern Lodge, No. 7, received another visit from Harmony Lodge, No. 9, last Wednesday evening. The lodge conferred the second degree upon several candidates. Next Wednesday evening the third degree will be conferred. Grand Master Frank Rapp and Grand Warden William J. Hope were also present at the last session and made a few interesting remarks.

Grand Representative Self Left Leaves on Trip.

Past Grand Frank D. Self, grand representative from the encampment branch of the order in this jurisdiction to the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, left the city Friday evening, September 11, for Asbury Park, where he will spend a week prior to going to Atlantic City for the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, 1914-15, O. F. which convenes in that city Monday, September 21. He expects to be absent from the city until September 3.

Ruth Rebekahs to Have "Home-Coming."

Ruth Rebekah Lodge, No. 2, has placed itself on record as favoring a Rebekah assembly for this jurisdiction. The plans for celebrating the home-coming of its members who have been on their summer outings are being carried out with much enthusiasm. Several candidates are in prospect for degree work. A surprise is promised for the members at the next session.

Golden Rule Lodge to Give Entertainment.

Golden Rule Lodge, No. 11, is showing increased weekly interest and activity, and is preparing for the first of its open social sessions, which will occur Tuesday evening, October 6. The members should save a resume of the doings of the lodge to attend, accompanied by the members of their families.

Encampment Entertainments to Be Resumed.

The joint encampment social committee announces the first of the fall series for Wednesday evening, October 7, at Mount Nebo Encampment, No. 6. It is borne in mind that these socials are open to the members of every subordinate lodge and their friends on Wednesday evening, November 11, the second of these socials will occur at Columbia Encampment, No. 1, and December 15 Magdalen Encampment will hold an open social. Fred D. Stuart Encampment will hold a similar social.

Grand Visitation to Begin Soon.

Grand Master Frank E. Rapp and Grand Patriarch Ernest N. Bradford have completed the first of all visitations, and the cards are now in the hands of the printer and will be ready for distribution during the coming week. The first of the grand visitations will be to Washington Lodge, No. 4, Tuesday evening, September 29.

Knights of Columbus.

State Deputy Normoyle Gives Resume of Supreme Convention.

Washington Council held its regular meeting last Tuesday evening, with Grand Knight Rover presiding. Reports were received from the committees in charge of the proposed dancing assembly, as well as the bowling and duckpin schedule, projecting an interesting series of social activities. The State deputy gave a resume of the doings of the Supreme Convention at St. Paul, and told of some plans mapped out for the consideration of the councils looking to a wider range of action on important projects affecting the progress and usefulness of the order in this jurisdiction.

Mr. James S. Easby-Smith, a past grand knight of this council, who was on the other side of the Atlantic when the titanic struggle of the nations began, addressed the meeting, giving a vivid and highly interesting narrative of the stirring scenes he witnessed, and the difficulties encountered in securing return passage to the friendly shores of the U. S. A. He praised the American committee in London for the magnificent work it accomplished in aiding many citizens of this republic who were stranded there.

Keane Council Opens Nominations for Officers.

Keane Council met last Thursday evening, with a large attendance of the members in evidence. Grand Knight Darr presiding. Dr. William E. Palro reported upon the activities of the building company for the past quarter. Mr. John T. Keenan, the lecturer of the council, presented an interesting program of entertainments. Mr. B. F. Byers, of Potomac Council, and the State deputy addressed the meeting. In accordance with the by-laws of the council, nominations of candidates for the various chairs was declared in order at the meeting, the same to remain open until the first meeting in October, when the annual election of officers for the ensuing year will take place. The names of candidates for several offices were placed in nomination.

Council Sessions for the Week.

Potomac Council will hold its regular meeting tomorrow night, with a busy program mapped out by Grand Knight Hewitt. Carroll Council meets Tuesday, and Spaulding Council is posting a notice to members announcing an entertainment at its meeting on Thursday.

The election of officers for the ensuing year will take place in each of the five councils at their respective scheduled meetings early in October, and bowling, dancing, lectures, musical and dramatic entertainments and other social activities will soon be flourishing.

Local Knights Attend Baltimore Celebration.

The members of the fourth degree participating in the "Star-Spangled Banner" centennial celebration parade in Baltimore on last Wednesday returned to Washington immediately gratified over the cordial welcome and the hospitality shown to them in the Monumental City, where it is reported they made a fine showing. Capt. Eugene Edwards and his drill team came through with flying colors, and received many commendations for their showing in the parade.

The master of the fourth degree for Maryland and the District of Columbia, Mr. Darr, as well as the chief executive
